

The name MORGAN is stamped on the top rail of every genuine MORGAN DOOR as a positive means of identification when the doors arrive at your building.

Insist that every door has this name on it, and do not accept a substitute.

WHAT OTHERS THINK of MORGAN DOORS

IN this booklet we show a small number of representative buildings that have been equipped throughout with MORGAN DOORS. If we should print a book as large as a full size dictionary, we could not show all of the buildings for which MORGAN DOORS have been chosen. The pictures and letters in this booklet are submitted without comment, as we prefer to have you draw your own conclusions from them.

The owners of modest homes, large residences, apartments and hotels, and the executive committees of corporations erecting large office buildings and institutions all recognize the superiority of MORGAN DOORS.

The lasting beauty, correct design and thorough construction of MORGAN DOORS is backed up by our guarantee that each and every MORGAN DOOR shall give complete satisfaction (provided it has been treated properly, after leaving our hands), or it will be replaced without charge. See that your specifications call for MORGAN DOORS.

REDLANDS, CALIFORNIA.

Gentlemen: You should feel proud of the MORGAN DOORS. My residence is equipped throughout with your beautiful hardwood doors, everyone of which is a picture. They represent all that is required in an artistic door—material—strength—workmanship—durability—just what is needed to give character to any home where effect is desired as well as service.

Yours truly,

H. A. CHERRIER.

Gentlemen: I shall certainly insist on MORGAN DOORS when I build, which will be during the summer. I had an opportunity to inspect some of the "real article" a few days ago, having gone through a new house, and the landlord mentioned that MORGAN DOORS were used throughout. I, therefore, inspected each door closely and am frank to say that your doors are far superior to any I have seen in material and workmanship, as well as finish. Assuring you that your doors only will be used in my home,

I am, very truly yours,

W. A. SCHECK.

Gentlemen: The MORGAN DOORS are well known to me, as I have used them many times. I am especially partial to your "Craftsman" style. Like most architects, formerly, I believed it possible to get well designed doors only upon making my own designs, but now am a firm believer in stock doors. Since the designs of MORGAN DOORS are so beautiful and correct, I find they are more satisfactory, as they are much better made than any doors we can get specially made from the ordinary mill. I congratulate you upon having perfected so necessary a part of the house.

Cordially,
CHARLES E. WHITE, JR., Architect.

Gentlemen: Your doors have been found very satisfactory, and the members of the committee never tire in their praises, and always discover some new point to admire. Even though we are very well acquainted with the quality of MORGAN DOORS, every new example we see is nevertheless always a new surprise and object of admiration to us. We cannot understand how you can profitably produce such high class work at your prices, and you may be assured of our continued confidence and appreciation.

Very truly yours, JEAN EWEN, Architect.
